1 A complaint is an assertion alleging a violation of privacy and/or civil liberties. Privacy complaints typically allege violations of: (1) procedure (consent, collection, disclosure, and notice); (2) redress (non-Privacy Act inquiries seeking resolution of difficulties about privacy matters); or (3) operational issues (Privacy Act matters not including requests for access, disclosure, and/or amendment). Civil liberties complaints typically allege a violation of the Bill of Rights or other Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.
Responsive action taken means the complaint was reviewed and a responsive action was taken and/or the complaint was resolved.

Pending means the complaint is being reviewed to determine the responsive action and/or resolution.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 2000ee-1, this letter and its enclosure serve as the Department of Defense’s (DoD) Privacy and Civil Liberties Report for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2014, July 1 through September 30, 2014.

Consistent with the statute’s requirement to review whether privacy and civil liberties are adequately considered, the Defense Privacy and Civil Liberties Division (DPCLD) continues to periodically review new and reissued policy issuances, legislative proposals, and agency responses to congressional inquiries. During the third quarter, the DPCLD reviewed 72 issuances.

The statute requires that DoD have “adequate procedures to receive, investigate, respond to, and redress complaints” alleging that DoD violated a complainant’s privacy or civil liberties. For the reporting quarter, six privacy complaints and 30 civil liberties complaints were received; responsive action was taken for 20 complaints; and 16 are pending.

A similar letter is being sent to the Chairmen of the other appropriate congressional committees and the Chairman of the Privacy and Civil Liberties Oversight Board.
